DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on 1/9/08 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of USP 6614795 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 23-26 allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As claims 23-24, the prior arts in the record fail to disclose or make obvious to a network node comprising set-up means configured to initiate, when the detection means detects the trigger, a set-up operation to establish a cut-through connection through which packets from the source node to the destination node are transferred, bypassing network-layer processing at least one boundary between logical networks; and transmission means configured to transmit packets destined to the destination node through the cut-through connection established according to the set-up operation initiated by the set-up means; wherein the received packet is transmitted through a default connection toward the destination node or the source node within a claim structure.

As claims 25-26, the prior arts in the record fail to disclose or make obvious to a network node comprising set-up means configured to initiate, when the detection means detects the trigger, a set-up operation to establish a cut-through connection through which packets from the source node to the destination node are transferred, bypassing network-layer processing at at least one boundary between logical networks; transmission means configured to transmit packets destined to the destination node through the cut-through connection established according to the set-up operation initiated by the set-up means; and buffer means configured to buffer the received packet from the source node to the destination node until the cut-through connection becomes useable, the received packet being transmitted through the cut-through connection within a claim structure.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
